What is GRI Certification?

GRI (Global Reporting Initiative) is the independent, international organization that helps businesses and other organizations take responsibility for their impacts, by providing them with the global common language to communicate those impacts. GRI works with with businesses, investors, policymakers, civil society, labor organizations and other experts to develop the GRI Standards and promote their use by organizations around the world. Used by more than 10,000 organizations in over 100 countries, the Standards are advancing the practice of sustainability reporting, and enabling organizations and their stakeholders to take action that creates economic, environmental, and social benefits for everyone. As confirmed by 2022 research from KPMG, the GRI Standards remain the most widely used sustainability reporting standards globally.

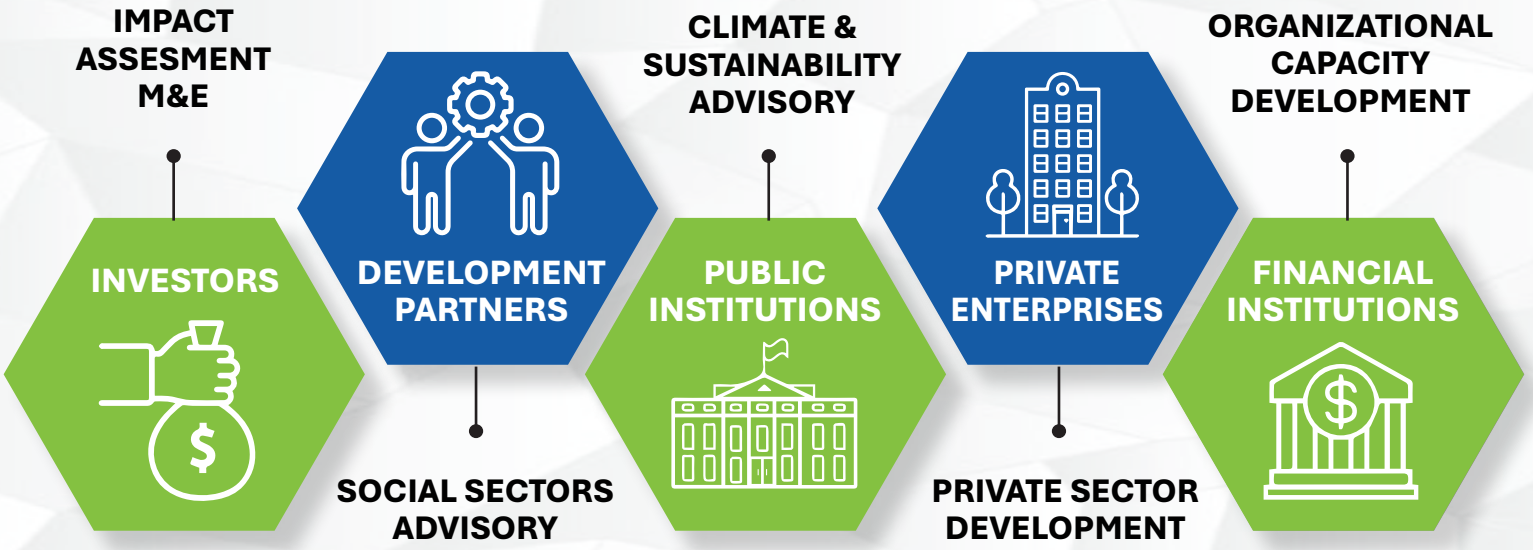

Professionals around the world take the GRI Certification course for them to learn how to apply the GRI reporting standards and gain a globally-recognized certification.

This course is suitable but not limited for: Corporate Sustainability Analysts, Officers and Managers, Consultants and Auditors, External Assurance Auditors, EHS Managers, Investor Relation Teams, Communications Teams, Students and Academia. It is suitable for individuals and teams from NGOs,
