GRI CERTIFICATION TRAINING FOR PROFESSIONAL SERVICE FIRMS

Strengthen advisory and reporting expertise by building sustainability reporting and ESG disclosure capabilities using GRI, the world's leading sustainability reporting framework.
Expanding advisory leadership in a changing business landscape.

Professional service firms increasingly support clients to:

- Navigate ESG expectations.
- Strengthen sustainability disclosures.
- Manage climate and governance risks.
- Improve transparency and accountability.
- Align with evolving investors, regulatory, and stakeholder expectations.

This GRI Certification Program equips professionals with practical sustainability reporting expertise to support advisory excellence and responsible business transformation.

APPLYING GRI ACROSS ADVISORY AND PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

Law firms, HR firms, consulting firms, accounting firms, communications agencies, and advisory partners are increasingly integrating sustainability and ESG considerations into client services and institutional strategies.

This training is especially valuable for professionals interested in:

- Supporting clients with sustainability reporting and ESG disclosures.
- Integrating non-financial reporting into advisory and consulting services.
- Strengthening climate, governance, and stakeholder disclosure capabilities.
- Advising organizations on responsible business and sustainability strategy.
- Enhancing ESG-related assurance, compliance, governance, and communication services.

WHY TRAIN WITH US ?

Practical Advisory and Consulting Perspective
This training is designed specifically for professional service firms navigating growing demand for ESG disclosure, sustainability reporting, climate accountability, and responsible business advisory services.

The program connects sustainability reporting directly to advisory priorities including:

- ESG advisory services.
- Governance and compliance.
- Client sustainability support.
- Stakeholder communication.
- Institutional transparency.
- Responsible business strategy.
- Industry-relevant learning experience.

Participants engage with:

- Advisory-focused case studies.
- ESG reporting exercises.
- Interactive peer discussions.
- Practical disclosure applications.
- Mock assessments and exam preparations.

OUR TRAINERS

Our facilitators combine technical sustainability reporting expertise with practical experience supporting institutions across Africa on ESG disclosure, sustainability reporting, impact communication, and institutional reporting systems. Collectively, the team has trained thousands of professionals across corporates, financial institutions, development organizations, and advisory firms.
